

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 302 – Enable parents to develop ways of handling relationships and behavior that contribute to everyday life with children

Unit Aims

The unit aims to help parents to better understand the range of needs of their children and to help them identify ways of meeting those needs.

Learning Outcomes

There are five key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Know how to enable parents to understand and respond to children's feelings and behaviors
- Understand how to support parents to interact with their children in positive ways
- Understand how to develop parents' knowledge of how to support children's play, learning and creativity
- Understand how to work with parents to find positive ways to meet children's physical needs
- Understand how to reflect on own practice in enabling parents to develop ways of handling relationships and behavior that contribute to everyday life with children

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Prerequisites:

Recommended Reading Materials:

The Six Stages of Parenthood, Ellen Galinsky
How Children Learn, Linda Pound
Child Development, an illustrated guide, Carolyn Meggitt
Child Development 6 to 16, Penny Tassoni
(wider list available)

Unit: 302

Enable parents to develop ways of handling relationships and behavior that contribute to everyday life with children.

Credits: 3

The unit aims to help parents to better understand the range of needs of their children and to help them identify ways of meeting those needs.

Assessment

This unit will be assessed by:

- Candidate portfolio of evidence
- Course specific assessment

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk