

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 305 – Build and maintain team relationships with colleagues engaged in work with parents

Unit Aims

This unit is about developing and maintaining good relationships with and alongside colleagues in order to support effective practice, to provide a quality service for parents, and to provide a working environment that is pleasant, co-operative and encourages professional and personal development.

Learning Outcomes

There are four key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Understand how to build and maintain relationships with colleagues engaged in work with parents
- Understand how to work as a member of a team
- Understand how to support others to develop their roles
- Understand how to reflect on own practice in building and maintaining relationships with and alongside colleagues engaged in work with parents

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Unit: 305

Build and maintain team relationships with colleagues engaged in work with parents.

Credits: 3

This unit is about developing and maintaining good relationships with and alongside colleagues in order to support effective practice, to provide a quality service for parents, and to provide a working environment that is pleasant, co-operative and encourages professional and personal development.

Assessment

This unit will be assessed by:

- Candidate portfolio of evidence
- Course specific assessment

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk