

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 315 – Deliver services that value and respect parents

Unit Aims

This unit aims to enable parents to recognise and value different family structures and approaches and deliver equitable services. It aims to assist them to listen to parents, value their strengths and help them to overcome barriers.

Learning Outcomes

There are five key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Understand how to acknowledge parents' feelings and experiences
- Understand how to recognise and develop parents' strengths
- Understand how to promote the value and recognition of diversity in society and in parenting roles
- Understand how to work with parents to overcome barriers to parenting support that individual families may face
- Understand how to reflect on own practice in delivering services that value and respect parents

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Unit: 315

Deliver services that value and respect parents.

Credits: 3

This unit aims to enable parents to recognise and value different family structures and approaches and deliver equitable services. It aims to assist them to listen to parents, value their strengths and help them to overcome barriers.

Assessment

This unit will be assessed by:

- Candidate portfolio of evidence
- Course specific assessment

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk