

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 311 – Engage parents in their children’s early learning

Unit Aims

This unit is about working with parents who have undergone life changing experiences. It aims to enable the learner to gain an understanding of how to work with such parents to enable them to identify and meet their needs as a parent.

Learning Outcomes

There are four key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Understand the policy context and research that underpins parental involvement in their children’s early learning
- Understand how to work in partnership with parents to support their children’s early learning
- Understand how barriers to parents being involved in their children’s early learning
- Understand how to use reflection to challenge and develop existing practice in working with parents to support their children’s early learning

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Unit: 311	Credits: 3	Assessment
Engage parents in their children’s early learning.	This unit is about developing and maintaining good relationships with and alongside colleagues in order to support effective practice, to provide a quality service for parents, and to provide a working environment that is pleasant, co-operative and encourages professional and personal development.	This unit will be assessed by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Candidate portfolio of evidence▪ Course specific assessment

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk