

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 312 – Engage young parents in supporting their children’s development

Unit Aims

This unit is about working with parents who have undergone life changing experiences. It aims to enable the learner to gain an understanding of how to work with such parents to enable them to identify and meet their needs as a parent.

Learning Outcomes

There are five key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Understand the context of pregnancy and parenthood for young people
- Understand transition issues for young people and their potential impact on parenthood
- Understand the impact of stress on a young parent’s relationship with their child/children
- Understand how to engage young parents with services
- Understand the specific needs of young fathers in engaging with their child’s needs and development

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Unit: 312	Credits: 3	Assessment
Engage young parents in supporting their children’s development.	This unit is about working with parents who have undergone life changing experiences. It aims to enable the learner to gain an understanding of how to work with such parents to enable them to identify and meet their needs as a parent.	This unit will be assessed by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Candidate portfolio of evidence▪ Course specific assessment

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk