

Level 3 Award in Work with Parents

Unit 313 – Engage fathers in their children’s early learning

Unit Aims

To enable the learner to gain the understanding and ability to work with fathers to engage them in their children’s early learning.

Learning Outcomes

There are four key learning outcomes to this unit:

- Understand the policy context and research that underpins the involvement of fathers in their children’s early learning
- Understand how to work in partnership with fathers to support their children’s early learning
- Understand the barriers to fathers being involved in their children’s early learning
- Understand how to use reflection to challenge and develop existing practice in working with fathers to support their children’s early learning

Key Skills:

This core unit will help you gain confidence in the following Key Skills:

- Application of Number
- Communication
- Information and Communication Technology
- Improving Own Learning and Performance
- Problem Solving
- Working with Others

Unit: 313	Credits: 3	Assessment
Engage fathers in their children’s early learning.	To enable the learner to gain the understanding and ability to work with fathers to engage them in their children’s early learning.	This unit will be assessed by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Candidate portfolio of evidence</li><li>▪ Course specific assessment</li></ul>

More Information

If you require any further information about this unit, please visit www.familymatters.org.uk